

The Quesnel Museum is continuing its ongoing program of collection review. The following items have been deaccessioned and are available for transfer to any institution that would be willing to pay transportation costs.

Trunks:

2004.8.2 Belonged to Gladys Hambly of Alberta. Center lock and side handles missing.

1981.5.1 Large leather trunk in poor condition belonged to Fanny Fen who came to Langley c 1910 and then lived in Milner

82-73 catalogued as a frame possibly for Quilting Originally catalogued as composed of 5 pieces, short piece at the top now missing. Donor Early Cariboo pioneer family.

Chairs:

1980.16.1-5 4 oak dining chairs with leather seats. Made in Elmira
Deaccessioning 2 side chairs each missing one or more stretchers.

1994.93.39 set of 6 chairs finish worn, backs all broken and re-glued, green velvet seats torn or stained

1986.240.1-8 4 matching chairs. All have wholes in cane seat

1986.119 1 Rocking chair associated with Cap Donald A Foster who captained paddlewheelers on the upper Fraser. Oak with leather seat, seat torn, straw stuffing hanging out some of wood trim missing.

1982.53.1 single side chair canned seat- seat worn out

1986.246.1 broken rocking chair from Bohanon House Quesnel

Autoclaves:

1978.23.1 donor form says donated by Canadian Red Cross
Object tagged from Dr. EL Morgan Oliver BC

1991.93.1 no provenance – believed to be a dentist sterilizer

1992.73.1-30 Circa 30 tin ceiling tiles possibly from 1st Masonic Hall in Quesnel scorching of paint and some rust.

We are also disposing of 4 incomplete mannequins.

2 male, neither have stands, one lacking arms and hands, the other just hands.

2 female

Left: missing stand and 1 hand.

Right has stand but no arms.

Please contact Elizabeth Hunter directly if you are interested in any of the above items by July 15th,

Ehunter@quesnel.ca

250-992-9580