

The White Rock Museum & Archives presents:
Disappearing White Rock

January 12, 2022 – White Rock, BC: The White Rock Museum & Archives is proud to present our exhibit Disappearing White Rock. The exhibit will be shown in our galleries from January 18 – February 1, 2022.

White Rock’s mid-century and older “cottage houses” have largely disappeared as the march of time leads to their replacement. This project brings together a diverse group of local artists to capture many of those that remain to celebrate their charm and humble persistence in our community. Disappearing White Rock is sponsored by the Plein Air Art Society and is a collaboration between Greg Smith who mounted an exhibit of these works at his home in the summer of 2021 and Charlene Garvey, Curator at the White Rock Museum & Archives.

Staff and leadership at the museum are committed to reaching out to and engaging the White Rock community. Our mission is to preserve our community’s heritage, reveal our community’s story, share stories worth telling, and welcome everyone.

The White Rock Museum & Archives is located at 14970 Marine Drive in the historic 1912 train station on the waterfront. For more information, please visit www.whiterockmuseum.ca or call 604-541-2221.
