Position Overview

The Kamloops Museum and Archives (KMA) is looking for a Museum Programmer/Instructor to lead accessible public and school programs that highlights the Kamloops community and local schools. The Museum Programmer/Instructor will continue to build meaningful relationships across a range of cultural communities and develop and deliver curriculum-appropriate programming. This is a context where your work can have a significant impact: the Museum Programmer/Instructor will ensure the KMA is a welcoming and engaging space.

The successful candidate must have the following qualifications:

1. Completion of a Bachelor of Education, Fine Arts, Art History, Social Sciences, or Humanities, or related discipline.
2. Minimum one-year previous experience in a museum or gallery setting.

Please note: If you are successfully shortlisted for this role, 1st interviews will be held virtually, via Microsoft Teams, the morning of Wednesday, April 27, 2022. Should you be successful in this interview process, you will be invited to an in-person interview in Kamloops on Friday, May 6, 2022.

This is a temporary, full-time position until approximately November 11, 2022.

For new hires, and for those working in designated positions of trust, including those working directly with vulnerable persons, no formal offer of employment will be made until an applicant completes a police information check.

This position will receive 14% in lieu of all benefits, vacation, stat holidays, and health time.

Effective November 1, 2021, the City of Kamloops implemented a Covid-19 Vaccination Policy that defines the conditions and expectations for employees regarding vaccination against COVID-19. The policy requires all employees hired after October 31, 2021, to be fully vaccinated, unless they can establish that they cannot be fully vaccinated for a valid reason related to a protected ground under the BC Human Rights Code. It is a term of acceptance of employment that you agree to comply with all vaccination requirements that apply to the City of Kamloops.
