

The White Rock Museum & Archives presents:
Che' Semiahmah-Sen, Che' Shesh Whe Weleq-sen Si'am
I am Semiahmoo, I am Survivor of the Flood

June 8, 2022 – White Rock, BC: The White Rock Museum & Archives is proud to present Che' Semiahmah-Sen, Che' Shesh Whe Weleq-sen Si'am (I am Semiahmoo, I am Survivor of the Flood). This exhibit will be shown in our galleries from June 14 – October 2, 2022.

Che' Semiahmah-Sen, Che' Shesh Whe Weleq-sen Si'am (I am Semiahmoo, I am Survivor of the Flood) was curated by the Semiahmoo First Nation and was originally developed by the Museum of Surrey. The exhibit explores the ways that the Nation has flourished since the Great Flood at the end of the last Ice Age. The exhibit features two large dioramas created by archaeologist Don Welsh, showing the sophisticated technology of reef net fishing and a summer fishing village. Also, on display will be several woven cedar pieces, video interviews and more.

Staff and leadership at the museum are committed to reaching out to and engaging the White Rock community. Our mission is to preserve our community's heritage, reveal our community's story, share stories worth telling, and welcome everyone.

The White Rock Museum & Archives is located at 14970 Marine Drive in the historic 1912 train station on the waterfront. For more information, please visit www.whiterockmuseum.ca or call 604-541-2221.
