2022-MUI Museum Interpreter Parks, Recreation and Cultural Services

The goal of the City of Burnaby and its employees is to consistently deliver first class service and services to our community. With this in mind, we hire people who share the same passion, those with the drive and determination to grow with and contribute to our already exceptional team. People like you!

The City of Burnaby is currently seeking auxiliary Museum Interpreters for the Burnaby Village Museum. This position will deliver interpretive programs, give tours and lead demonstrations and activities within exhibits. The successful candidate may also assist in the development of new programs as directed and provide guidance to volunteers. Museum Interpreters prepare supplies and equipment for programs, perform light cleaning duties related to exhibits and artifacts and perform related work as required.

Qualifications include completion of Grade 12 supplemented by courses related to museum work plus sound related experience or an equivalent combination of training and experience. The ideal candidate has sound knowledge of interpretive techniques museum principles and British Columbia history. The ability to communicate effectively verbally and to establish and maintain effective working relationships with staff and visitors is required. Experience delivering education programs and related customer service work dealing with the public is an asset.

Shifts for this position vary and are based on our operational requirements. Ideally, your availability for this role will be weekdays, evenings and weekends, and will be available to work statutory holidays. Our season at the Burnaby Village Museum runs from May through August and from late November through to early January.

Wage: $25.35 per hour + 12% in lieu of benefits (2021 Rate)
