

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

INDUSTRIAL HERITAGE CULTURAL MAP

Industrial growth profoundly changed the province of BC, establishing communities and infrastructure, and contributing to a strong provincial economy, largely from extracting natural resources.

Yet many decades of European colonization and a limited understanding of natural resource management left a legacy of displacement and ecosystem degradation.

We invite you to submit industrial sites in your area for our Industrial Heritage Inventory & Cultural Map.

Full details are on our website.

3249, PHOENIX, B.C. 1901.
R. H. TRUEMAN & CO. PHOTO, VANCOUVER, B.C.
City of Vancouver Archives

Submission intake
closes

JUNE 9 2023

CONTACT US

culturalmaps@heritagebc.ca

www.heritagebc.ca

Heritage BC

