

Education Assistant/Summer Camp Counselor– Young Canada Works Position

The Vancouver Maritime Museum is located on the located on the traditional territories of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam), sk̓w̓x̓wú7mesh (Squamish) and səlilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh).

The Vancouver Maritime Museum is seeking a motivated, enthusiastic, and energetic individual to develop and deliver summer day camps and assist the programs department in hosting and presenting maritime-themed educational programs to the public. Responsibilities will include organizing and delivering summer day camps in July and August which includes leading daily activities and supervising camp attendees. As well as, assisting the programs department in hosting and presenting events to the public for National Indigenous Peoples Day and BC Day. The successful applicant will be an organized, outgoing team player that is comfortable working with children and speaking publicly. This temporary, full-time position is funded in part by the Young Canada Works (YCW) employment initiative of the Department of Canadian Heritage.

Employment term: May 15th, 2023 – August 30th, 2023 (15.5 weeks); 35 hours per week including some weekdays, weekends, and evening work. Position is subject to grant funding.

Remuneration: $17.28 per hour + 10% in lieu of benefits and statutory holidays.

Responsibilities:

- Researches and develops a maritime themed Steam Summer Day Camps for children ages six to twelve.
- Delivers summer camps with a team during the summer months.
- Supervises a crew of summer camp volunteers over the course of July and August
- Assists programming staff in organizing public programs for National Indigenous Peoples Day and BC Day.
- Works with museum staff and volunteers involved in educational programs.

Qualifications:

- Organized team player with excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Experience working with children and family groups.
- Background and/or interest in education, teaching, history, humanities, communications, fine arts, theater and/or museum studies programs
- Eligible candidates must meet requirements for the YCW program and be a full-time student (16-30 years old) and returning to full-time studies in the fall.

How to apply: Apply with a cover letter and resume by Sunday, April 23rd by email to: Programs Coordinator at education@vanmaritime.com

The Vancouver Maritime Museum Society is an equal opportunity employer, and the Government of Canada's job equity groups are encouraged to apply. No phone inquiries please. Please note that only short-listed candidates will be notified.