

Accession No.	Title	Description	Photo
1979.15.1901	Horse Cart	Gig or cart 3'x12" Approx . Stored in barn loft in G.P. Farm where it was found
1989.28.3066	Assaying Kit	Assaying Kit (Chemistry Set), contains: 6 test tubes (2 nested); 3 nested in box; 3 clay crucibles; 1 funnel; 5 small beakers; 10 approx. stir sticks and pipettes; chemical scales; tongs; tweezers etc. NOTE- accession number 1989 - 025 (rocks), go with this set.
2005.8a,b.5410	Taxidermy Duck	Ducks, pair of Canvas Backs, taxidermy work, done by Mr. Krietz's first wife, Agnes, during the 1950's. They were farming near MacGregor Manitoba and Louis hunted ducks at Lake 24 to feed the family. Good condition
2005.9a,b.5411	Taxidermy Bird	Birds, "Marbled Godwits", a type of shore bird. Preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes, in the 1950's. The family lived near MacGregor, Manitoba and Louis hunted ducks near "Lake 24". Some of the species in the collection died accidentally, good condition.
2005.14a,b.5416	Taxidermy Duck	Ducks, "Redhead", a pair, preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes. The family lived near MacGregor Manitoba in the 1950's and Louis hunted ducks at "Lake 24". Good cond.

2005.18a,b.5420	Taxidermy Duck	Ducks, "Bluewinged Teal" a pair, preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes, while the family lived near MacGregor Manitoba in the 1950's. Louis hunted ducks at "Lake 24" to help feed the family. Good condition.
2005.19.5421	Taxidermy Duck	Duck, "North American Black" preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes, during the 1950's while the family lived near MacGregor Manitoba. Louis hunted ducks at "Lake 24" to help feed the family. Good condition.
2005.21a,b.5423	Taxidermy Duck	Ducks, "Northern Shoveller", male and female, preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes, during the 1950's when the family lived near MacGregor Manitoba. Louis hunted ducks at "Lake 24" to help feed the family. Good condition.
2005.23.5425	Taxidermy Duck	Duck, "Gadwall" preserved by taxidermy by Louis Kreitz's first wife, Agnes during the 1950's while the family lived near MacGregor Manitoba. Louis hunted at "Lake 24" to help feed the family. Good cond.
2010.70.1	Pump Organ	*our records have no further information	