1950.001.004	Lace Two lace ribbons.	Two white pleated lace ribbons. They have a pink central strip that runs the length of each ribbon and they appear to be machine made.	[190-?].
1950.001.121	Tag, Identification Tag with the number 110 on it.	One tag. It is round and gold varnished with the number 110 engraved into the metal. Above the number is a hole for hanging the tag. The varnish has chipped off in places. It is likely lacquered brass.
1950.001.123	Wrench, Crescent Crescent wrench.	One 's' curved double headed wrench. It has two open ends and a curved 's' shaped centre. These kind of wrenches are also known as 'obstruction' wrenches. It has extensive surface rust.
1950.001.124	Tin Biscuit Tin	A biscuit tin. It is a red tin box with a red lid. The cookies were made by Biscuitfabriek De Lindeboom in Mijdrecht Amsterdam (Holland). On the top of the lid is an oval shaped drawing showing two women and a man gathered around a table. The image is framed in white flowers. On either side of the tin are drawings showing stereotypical scenes of Holland, including windmills and boats. On one end are the instructions, written in English, "to keep in a cool dark place".	(Between 1826 and 1935)
1950.001.133	Scissors Metal scissors	One pair of metal scissors. They are silver in colour. The ring handles are opposing or classic handles, they are round, almost symmetrical and positioned side by side. The blades are straight, and the cutting edge is long. The makers mark and production year is stamped on one side.	[188-?].
1950.001.141	Shoe Brush Shoe brush.	A hand held flat brush. It has a wooden handle with worn down redish bristles. The bristles appear to be horse or goat hair. There are six metal nails on the top.
1950.001.143	Box Cardboard box	A beige cardboard box and lid. The surface of the cardboard is shimmery with a raised floral pattern on it. On the corner of the lid is a sticker with an image of people getting ready to ski, with the words "Greetings/ MADE IN/ CANADA" around them.
1950.001.146	Ring Metal ring.	Metal roll formed ring. It is made of thin, wide metal which has been bent into a circle. The ring is broken and split open.

1950.001 Cup | A white ceramic mug. The mug is decorated with a band of blue leaves and flowers which runs along the body of the mug, and with a blue band along the rim. The foot of the mug is narrower than the body. The bottom of the mug has the makers mark "Holt-Howard" and the date 1964 stamped there, along with the copyright symbol.

1950.001 Cup | One ceramic tea cup or mug. It is plain green with a round shape, wide lip with a narrower foot. There is no makers mark on the bottom, but there are three small bumps on the base. It appears uniform in shape and is likely to be factory made.

1950.001 Cup | One teacup. It is white with a thin gold band along the exterior body. The inside has an orange band along the rim, bordered by a pattern of brown vines with leaves that dangle down into the body of the cup. The teacup is fluted, with a broken loop handle, a style where the handle is less rounded in shape. The bottom of the tea cup is blank. It appears to be hand painted.

1950.001 Plane | A try plane. It is an elongated block of dark wood with a wooden looped handle on the top. A blade of metal runs through the wood, with just the tip poking out of the bottom. It is designed to be gripped at the handle and pushed along a wooden surface.

1950.001 Satchel | A small portmanteau suitcase or Gladstone Bag. It is a brown leather bag, built over a rigid frame which separates into two equal sections, with a small handle on either side, and a lock on the top. It is carried from the top. The bag has four rounded "feet" on the bottom, and has a rectangular base. The letters "A.W.H" are marked in black on one side. The inside liner is plain brown. The bag is ripped.

1950.001 Fragment, Wood | A piece of cherry wood with a black horseshoe hooked into it. The cherry tree was originally planted in 1880.
