1950.001.004	Lace Two lace ribbons.	Two white pleated lace ribbons. They have a pink central strip that runs the length of each ribbon and they appear to be machine made.	[190-?].
1950.001.121	Tag, Identification Tag with the number 110 on it.	One tag. It is round and gold varnished with the number 110 engraved into the metal. Above the number is a hole for hanging the tag. The varnish has chipped off in places. It is likely lacquered brass.
1950.001.123	Wrench, Crescent Crescent wrench.	One 's' curved double headed wrench. It has two open ends and a curved 's' shaped centre. These kind of wrenches are also known as 'obstruction' wrenches. It has extensive surface rust.
1950.001.143	Box Cardboard box	A beige cardboard box and lid. The surface of the cardboard is shimmery with a raised floral pattern on it. On the corner of the lid is a sticker with an image of people getting ready to ski, with the words "Greetings/ MADE IN/ CANADA" around them.
1950.001.146	Ring Metal ring.	Metal roll formed ring. It is made of thin, wide metal which has been bent into a circle. The ring is broken and split open.
1950.001.163	Cup Green ceramic cup.	One ceramic tea cup or mug. It is plain green with a round shape, wide lip with a narrower foot. There is no makers mark on the bottom, but there are three small bumps on the base. It appears uniform in shape and is likely to be factory made.
1950.001.164	Cup Tea cup with orange floral pattern.	One teacup. It is white with a thin gold band along the exterior body. The inside has an orange band along the rim, bordered by a pattern of brown vines with leaves that dangle down into the body of the cup. The teacup is fluted, with a broken loop handle, a style where the handle is less rounded in shape. The bottom of the tea cup is blank. It appears to be hand painted.
1950.001.170	Plane Trying Plane	A try plane. It is an elongated block of dark wood with a wooden looped handle on the top. A blade of metal runs through the wood, with just the tip poking out of the bottom. It is designed to be gripped at the handle and pushed along a wooden surface.

1950.002 .070	Lid Display Case Christie's Biscuits Tin Lid	A lid for a box of Christie's Biscuits. It is metal and square shaped. The metal frame has hinges on the left hand side and the top of the lid can be lifted upwards. There is an empty rectangular opening in centre of the lid which would have originally contained a sheet of glass. There is a blue and white metal sign built into the top of lid which reads: "Christie's Biscuits / since 1853". There is text embossed on the metal just below the sign which reads: "Christie, Brown and Company, Limited". The metal frame is silver-coloured but has some rust and discoloration. Some embossed text along the bottom edge of the lid reads: "Property of / Christie, Brown and Company, Limited / Patent Applied For". Inside the top portion of the lid are two thin pieces of metal (one on either side, left and right) which would have held the glass sheet in place. The piece on the right side closest to the hinges is broken and the bottom half missing.	[19-- ?].
