Odysseys and Migration* preview at the Royal BC Museum

VICTORIA, BC — Join us with the Chinese Canadian Museum for a preview of the newest exhibition at the Royal BC Museum called Odysseys and Migration.

This exhibition delves into the Chinese diaspora, spanning from the early days of settlement to the present. It examines Chinese-Indigenous relations dating back to 1788, the various waves of migration between Hong Kong and Vancouver, and the 20th-21st century movements of people from countries across the world.

Starting at 9 AM, there will be remarks from CEO of the Royal BC Museum, Tracey Drake, and CEO of the Chinese Canadian Museum, Dr. Melissa Karmen Lee.

Date: April 17, 2025

Time: 9 – 10 AM

Place: 2nd Floor, Royal BC Museum

Tracey Drake, and Melissa Karmen Lee will be available for interviews.

Visit the Royal BC Museum Flickr page for images from the exhibition for print and online use:
