

AUTHOR TALK

THURSDAY 20 NOVEMBER | 7 PM | Museum Events Pavilion

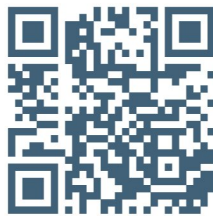

CHALLENGING EXILE

Japanese Canadians and the Wartime Constitution

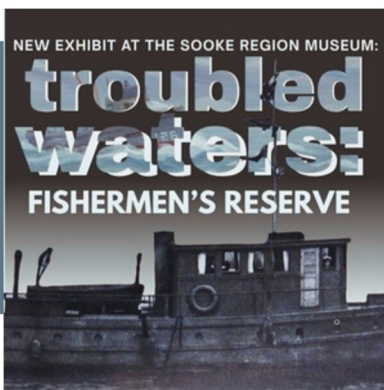

Join us as author Jordan Stanger-Ross discusses his book Challenging Exile and the circumstances behind the proposed exile of Japanese Canadians in 1945. Unfolding in a context of global conflict, sharpened borders, and racist suspicion, this story has enduring relevance for our own troubled time.

Books will be available for sale and author signing.

For more details scan the QR code or visit: sookeregionmuseum.ca/author-talks/

The Museum will be open to view the troubled waters: FISHERMEN'S RESERVE exhibit open from 9:30am-7pm on Thursday 20 November prior to the author talk.

ADMISSION BY DONATION

📍 2070 Phillips Road, Sooke, BC

☎ 250-642-6351

📷 @sookemuseuminfocentre

sookeregionmuseum.ca