

History Camp Coordinator

Summer Job Posting

Golden & District Historical Society

About the Golden & District Historical Society

The Golden & District Historical Society is committed to preserving, promoting, and presenting the diverse history of Golden and its neighbouring communities. Our guiding principles are to inspire curiosity, involve our community, and share our story.

Purpose

The History Camp Coordinator is enthusiastic, creative, patient, and enjoys spending time with children.

Answering to the Executive Director, both History Camp Coordinators will work together to run a well-established Summer Day Camp. They will be partially responsible for the supervision of a group of up to 12 children ranging in age from 6 to 12, as well as facilitating a fun, safe, and educational summer camp program. In addition, they will be responsible for the research, planning, and coordinating of camp activities, including creating a loose schedule, arranging off grounds trips, developing games and crafts, and incorporating the History of Golden and the surrounding communities into fun, everyday learning.
